REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1918

ESTABLISHED 1850

THE COBURN CASE WILL NOT BE ON FOR TWO WEEKS

ATTORNEYS FOR BOTH SIDES
AGREE TO CONTINUANCE OF THE SAME

The various petitions and counter-petitions that have been filed in the estate of Loren Coburn and the various applications for guardianship of the widow and son will not be heard in the superior court at Redwood City, on Friday, the attorneys on both sides having agreed to a continuance for two weeks.

Following the death of the Pescadero land owner, Ross & Ross of this city filed petitions from the nephew, Azro Coburn, for guardianship of the widow, Sarah Satira Coburn, and the feeble-minded son, Wallace L. Coburn, and also a petition by the public administrator, Dr. W. A. Brooke, for special letters of administration on Loren Coburn's estate.

The next day, Cullinan & Hickey of San Francisco and Judge Edward F. Fitzpatrick of Redwood City filed a will made by Coburn in which he left the bulk of his estate to his widow and son, together with a petition by Mrs. Coburn and C. H. Widemann for appointment as executors. They also filed a petition by Mrs. Coburn and Widemann for the guardianship of Coburn's son.

All of these matters were set for hearing next Friday morning. Today it was reported that Ross & Ross and Attorney Walter H. Linforth, who is associated with them as attorneys for Azro Coburn, have in their possession a will which was made by Coburn later than the one already on file in Redwood City. This will, it is said, leaves a great part of the estate to Azro. The Times-Gazette endeavored today to verify this rumor, but Attorney Hall C. Ross declared they had nothing to give out for publication. When asked if they have another will made by Coburn in their possession, Attorney Ross said he had nothing to say.

Following Coburn's death it was reported that there were several wills in existence, but thus far, the one filed by Attorneys Cullinan & Hickey and Judge Fitzpatrick is the only one that has made its appearance on the records.

Whether there will be a bitter court battle over the distribution of the estate and the guardianship of the widow and son, or whether the matter will be compromised out of court are questions that are being asked on all sides today following the announcement that the hearings set for next Friday have been postponed for two weeks. All the attorneys on both sides are maintaining a sphinx-like silence.

ERIC THOMPSON WRITES HOME

Camp Lewis, November 25, 1918—Dear Denny: We hear every day that we will be discharged soon but when? well I don't know. I expect to see the 13th division remain here for a few months yet. We had a big review here last Saturday morning. About 20,000 civilians were out to witness the big events, this being their first opportunity to enter into the camp in seven weeks. The quarantine was lifted last Monday and everyone was happy again. There is still some "flu" around this part of the country.

We have reveille at 6:30 a. m. now. This was also welcome news to us. The mornings are quite chilly and one sure hates to pile out of the old bunk. Have breakfast at 6:45 and fall out for drill at 7:15. They handed us real guns the day after the armistice was signed, so we think the war is just commencing. The office brigade are going fine on the field and will be the manual of arms down in good shape soon. Drill an hour in the morning and report back to the office at 8:30 to finish the day's work. I was made a sergeant, first-class, last week. Every little bit helps.

Your friend,
ERIC THOMPSON.

WEDNESDAY EVENING DANCES TO BE RESUMED HERE

To the great joy of the young folks of the community, the Wednesday evening dances will again commence in the Forester's hall. A Yama Yama Ball will mark the opening on the evening of December 4. In the last year these social dances have proven remarkably popular and have been attended by the best element of the peninsula. If recent inquiries from San Mateo, Belmont and other adjoining communities as to the resumption of these dances are an indication, then a large crowd for the opening night is assured.

ARTHUR LAMB WRITES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lamb received a long awaited letter from their son, Arthur J. Lamb, from the front in France yesterday. The parents of the young soldier were much troubled in not hearing from him for so long. The letter was surely welcomed. Young Lamb's letter is dated October 22. He says that for some time he has been under shell fire and air raids. From the tone of the epistle Young Lamb must have been at the battle of Argonne and the Meuse. His division was in those engagements. He is well and is enjoying the life in the front.

UNION THANKSGIVING HELD HERE WEDNESDAY

A Union Thanksgiving service of all the Protestant churches of Redwood City was held in the Congregational church Wednesday night. Rev. C. H. Stevens presided and welcomed the congregation, saying that it was the largest Thanksgiving attendance he had ever seen in this city. Rev. C. F. Parker of the Baptist church read the Eighth Chapter of Deuteronomy as the lesson of the evening. Rev. Oscar Smith of the Methodist church delivered the prayer after which Rev. Francis Brown, rector of the Episcopal church, preached the sermon. Rev. Mr. Brown's words were well chosen and without doubt it was one of the best Thanksgiving sermons ever heard in this community. The collection which was a large one was sent to the Armenian.

Mr. O. M. Carrington added to the song service by singing a solo.

REGISTER YOUR MOTOR CARS FROM SAN MATEO COUNTY

Assessor D. P. Flynn has sent out the following letters to all owners of motor cars who reside in the county during the summer months and who moved to the city for the winter:

I am herewith writing to all residents and owners of property in San Mateo county to register their motor cars in our county, to the end that we may receive our full share of the state taxes collected upon motors, and thereafter apportioned to the various counties according to the number of machines registered in each county.

It has been the custom of many San Mateo people who spend the winter in San Francisco to register their cars from that city. This does not result in any loss in the collection of the county personal property taxes as the taxes are paid here in almost all cases rather than in the city, but it does result in a loss of revenue derived from the apportionment of the State license money. As this money is given to the counties for the upkeep of the roads, all automobile owners in San Mateo county should see that this county gets some of the benefit from their licenses.

MERCHANT APPROVES OF THE CASH-AND-CARRY PLAN

November 28, 1918—Editor Times-Gazette: As a merchant of Redwood City and a housekeeper, I heartily endorse the "Four Square Plan" business method as adopted by Daniel R. Stafford of this city, from a standpoint of both the selling and buying of merchandise and home necessities. Commencing December 1st I will install the system in my store. It is to be hoped that every merchant in this city will co-operate in the plan. The public in general would do well to adhere to the plan as closely as possible, thereby not only minimizing the operating expenses of the merchant, it will be like finding money for themselves.

Many people know that when buying something and having it charged, and then having to pay for it when the bill is presented, is much like paying twice for it.

Let us not forget that it is always easier to pay one dollar than it is to pay two dollars.

FRED W. LIPPMAN,
Jewelry and Music Dealer, Redwood City.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Redwood City as Seen Through Incidents Gathered Here and There

Dr. Edward Genocchio of San Francisco spent Thanksgiving here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Genocchio.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lamb at the Homestead near San Mateo on Tuesday, November 26, 1918. Grandpa Henry Lamb of this city is much elated over the arrival of the latest addition to the Lamb family.

Redwood City is a dry community, all saloons being closed, but a stranger in going down Howe way and Main street would have quite a contrary view as he perused the signs "Lager for sale," "Agents for Bourbon Whiskey," etc., on many of the buildings. If the town is dry let it have all the outward appearance of it. Property owners should obliterate these signs at once.

Robert Letts requests that all those having ranch property for sale to list them with him. He expects a number of intending purchasers from the east during the coming month and he wants to show them all the available property. Many eastern people who spent last winter at Camp Fremont want to locate on the peninsula. Mr. Letts has offices in the Sequoia Theatre building.

D. R. Stafford will open his cash-and-carry store in the Germania hall building on Monday next. He has leased the old Helise store and has stocked it with a complete line of choice, fresh groceries which he will sell at reduced prices. Mr. Stafford will do a big business.

The Helise Grocery has sold the stock of goods to D. R. Stafford, any one owing the store will please call at the home of Mrs. Helise at 333 Winslow street and settle the account.

Edward Fisher, formerly in the drug business here, visited friends last Saturday. Mr. Fisher is a chemist in the employ of the Spockels Sugar Company at their big plant at Salinas. He has been in the company's employ for a number of years. Two of his sons are at the front in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker and daughter came down from San Francisco Wednesday and spent the Thanksgiving with Mr. Becker's parents.

In the Victory Boy Campaign held in conjunction with the War Drive 536 school boys gave and pledged $1002 to the fund.

George Eberle who is stationed at Mare Island has been home on a ten day furlough but returned to his post of duty Thursday afternoon.

Joe Fitzpatrick is home on a ten day leave of absence. Joe joined the navy early in the year and has been stationed at San Pedro ever since. He says that no place ever looked so good to him as does his home here in Redwood City.

Attorney J. L. Johnston has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce of Santa Cruz and will have charge of the destinies of that organization for the coming year. Mr. Johnston has appointed committees and has mapped out a lot of progressive work for 1919.

Mrs. Nancy A. Jones passed away at the home of Captain Wallace on Roosevelt avenue on Wednesday. Mrs. Jones was 69 years old and had only been residing here for the past two months. She came here from Oakland with her two daughters and a son. They had rented the Wallace home. The remains of the old lady were laid away in Mount Olivet yesterday.

Guy F. Hull accompanied by Supervisor Joseph T. Francis and Attorney Gilbert of Halfmoon Bay, departed yesterday for Willows, Glenn county, to hunt ducks in the rice fields for the next two days. The birds are very plentiful there and the party hopes to bring home a big string of fat ducks.

REBEKAH LODGE, I. O. O. F. WILL ELECT OFFICERS

Evening service at 8 o'clock.

The topic will be: "The Day Everything Went Wrong." Was it the day your stock took a tumble? many are enjoying the song service.

Endeavor Society at 8:30. Sunday school at 9:45. Christmas will soon be here. The public is cordially invited to all services.

MRS. ANNE KIERCE GONE TO HER LAST REWARD

Mrs. Anne Kierce, a native of County Clare, Ireland, aged 85 years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Theresa Hogan, in San Francisco Friday night of last week. Mrs. Kierce resided here with her daughter, Mrs. Mary J. Griffin, since the fire and earthquake and up until her recent illness when she removed to San Francisco. Mrs. Kierce spent the greater portion of her life in Rio Vista where she owns large ranches. After the death of her husband many years ago she came to San Francisco to reside. She was a kindly old lady, highly esteemed by all who knew her.

Mrs. Kierce is survived by three children, F. J. Kierce the well-known San Francisco attorney, Mrs. Mary J. Griffin of Redwood City and Mrs. Theresa Hogan of San Francisco, and the following grandchildren: Raymond Griffin and Marian Hogan. The remains of the beloved woman were interred in Holy Cross cemetery, at Colma on Tuesday.

H. L. HEWSON APPOINTED GUARDIAN OF HEWSONS

Judge Buck yesterday appointed H. L. Hewson guardian ad litem of the persons of his two nephews, Wesley B. Hewson, aged eight years and Herbert E. Hewson, aged ten years. The minors are defendants in the suit of Belle Jane Moore against Ernest W. Hewson and others. The minors reside in Venice, Los Angeles and their father lives in New York. They are heirs of the Brittan estate, their mother being a Miss Brittan. She died some years ago.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

A number of prominent citizens of this city have rented a portion of the top floor of the Wahl building for club rooms. The apartments are being fitted up for that purpose. They will receive their friends there and their father lives in New York. They are heirs of the Brittan estate, their mother being a Miss Brittan. She died some years ago.

Jonas Hansen while out near the bay shore on Wednesday found a piece of timber Mary feet in length, ten inches thick and ten inches wide, a portion of a ship's yard. The piece of timber is valued by Mr. Hansen at $250. It is evidently floated away from some of the bay ship yards. It is of no value to Mr. Hansen but of considerable worth to the owner who may have it by calling at Mr. Hansen's residence in this city.

NOTICE

The public is hereby notified that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Mrs. Edla Roberson, who has left my bed and board.

J. W. ROBERSON.

COUNTY BOARD MET MONDAY

The board of supervisors met in adjourned session Monday, November 21, at 11:55 a. m. There being present Dr. C. V. Thompson, presiding; T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, Jno. MacBain and Jos. M. Francis.

The board took up the question of appointing three citizens of the county to act as an advisory committee with the supervisors in the selection of a new site for the county hospital.

The following names were submitted and were accepted by the board, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis.

W. H. Coffinberry, South San Francisco; Rev. Walter Cambridge, San Mateo; and Horace Nelson of Halfmoon Bay.

Attorney Jos. H. Gordon, chairman of the United War Work campaign in San Mateo appeared before the board in the matter of his request made at the last meeting for a donation from the county toward the drive.

It was understood that the members of the board were to consider an appropriation at this meeting only in the event that the county did not reach its quota, and as Attorney Gordon reported the quota secured, there was no action necessary to be taken.

The board adjourned at 12:30 to Monday, December 2, at 10 a. m.

MARINES TO PUT UP BIG SHOW AT SANTA CLARA

Inaugurating the campaign in Santa Clara county for recruits to the United States Marines, a big show will be put on at the University of Santa Clara next Sunday. The show will consist of a number of boxing bouts by some of the best talent in this part of the state and a baseball game between the crack Merchant Marine and the San Jose "Bears." Managing the latter team is G. C. Bradford, well-known here as the former manager of the Campbell Athletics, the aggregation that played a series of games with the local team in 1915 and 1916. Del Crespi will pitch for the sailors, and "Diz" Leonard will be on the firing line for the Bears.

Among those who will don the gloves in the big "doings" are Paddy McFarland, who will take on "Knock out" Alpers; and "Battling" Feivey, who will try to put K. O. Dominic to sleep.

The two crack bands will furnish music for the big time, one from the Olympic Club, San Francisco and the other from the University of Santa Clara. The admission to the whole show, both the boxing and the ball game, will be only 50 cents.

APPRAISERS APPOINTED

NOW, ALL TOGETHER

Reconstruction problems are not alone for the solution of men at Washington, or in New York, or in Europe. Every person, in the big city or the remote hamlet, can do his share. The returned soldiers will go back to their homes on the plains, and in the mountains, as well as to homes in the cities. Most of these men will find occupations for themselves. In fact, after the strenuous life they have led, it is a safe guess that the stay-at-home will have a busy time meeting the competition of the men who have been "over there." But there will be cases of unfortunates who have been crippled, or who have never been trained for anything but the most common labor. Some of these will need help—not charity, but support, but friendly aid in getting started again. It will be comparatively easy to help these men along, but everyone must make it his business to add his assistance when opportunity offers. It will be a misfortune to the men themselves if the people of the country look upon them as subjects for coddling or charity. With few exceptions, they will not so regard themselves, unless gradually induced to do so by thoughtless emotionalists. Under the selective draft law they were taken out of civil occupations and put into the army and navy. By the exercise of such measures as may be practicable they should be placed back in their occupations by selection. Except in cases where their working powers have been impaired, they will then take care of themselves. The selective process of getting them back into private industry is the important step in the reconstruction program. Let everybody help.

REPUBLICANISM, A STAPLE ARTICLE

The Potter County Journal, of Courdesport, Pa., makes the appropriate remark that it preaches Republicanism all the year round. We need more Republican papers of that kind. There has been nothing inconsistent in preaching Republicanism and also supporting a vigorous prosecution of the war. Yet some Republican editors seemed to have been quieted by the idea that talking politics would embarrass the administration in presenting America's share in the conflict. The President said in his appeal to the country for a Democratic Congress that the Republicans in Congress had been pro-war but anti-administration. And the returns show that that was just what the country wanted them to be. It has been a sectional, not a national, partisan, extravagant, and inefficient administration, and the returns show that a majority of the people are against it, although an overwhelming majority were also pro-war. Preaching Republicanism now is just as important as it was before election. Congress will be in the control of the Democrats until March 4. We shall have a Democratic President and a Democratic cabinet until March 4, 1921. If we are to hasten reconstruction in governmental administration we must keep demanding them.

SHOULD THIS BOY HANG?

It is unlawful to sell intoxicants to minors.
But liquor dealers sell intoxicants to minors.
It is unlawful to sell intoxicants to Indians.
But liquor dealers sell intoxicants to Indians.
Liquor dealers violate these laws just as they violate such other laws as they dare.
Their violation of law has brought at least one minor to the shadow of the gallows.
Unless the Governor interposes, this minor will be hanged on December 6th next. His name is Clarence Rollins. He is a half-breed Indian. He is 19 years old. Drunk-wrecked, he committed liquor murder.
Rollins, although an Indian and a minor, from his earliest boyhood had no trouble in getting all the whiskey he wanted.
To be sure those who sold and gave him whiskey violated two laws, but nobody seems to have cared much about that except the boy's mother. His Indian mother repeatedly appealed to the authorities to enforce these laws that her son might not get intoxicated. But there was money to be made by selling this Indian boy whiskey. The mother's humble petition to have the laws enforced that her son might be saved went unheeded. Liquor dealers continued to sell him whiskey.
By the time Rollins was 19, liquor dealers had made a good bit of money out of him. Incidentally, they had made him a vicious boy.
Then Rollins fell into the company of an ex-convict. Together they plotted to rob the place that had often broken the law by selling Rollins liquor. In robbing the saloon, Rollins killed the saloon-keeper.
For this crime Rollins is to hang on December 6th next.
His old Indian mother, whose appeal to the white man to enforce the law against selling intoxicants to Indians and minors that her son might be saved went unheeded, is circulating a petition appealing to the Governor to have her boy from the gallows by commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment.

MADE IN U. S. A.

It is suggested that there is no need of using a "Made-in-America" label on American goods to distinguish them from articles made in Germany. But that is not the only purpose of the proposed brand. What we want is the use of goods made here as against goods made in any other land, either enemy of ally. America should produce or manufacture every commodity needed for home use, so far as practicable. When we must buy abroad, we should buy from those with whom we have been associated in the war for preservation of international rights. Only as a last resort should we buy from the Hun. It is a strange type of American who will buy goods made by men or women who spat in the faces of American soldiers as they were conducted as prisoners of war through German territory. But regardless of that, America should produce a class of goods of which Americans can be proud, and, in order to spread the fame of these goods they should bear the brand, "Made in America," or "Made in U. S. A."

MANY ASPIRANTS FOR SEATS IN THE COURT OF APPEAL

There are many aspirants throughout the state for the three judgeships on the new court of appeals created by the vote of the people at the recent election. The names of some very eminent judges are mentioned for the coveted places. We know of none better fitted for one of these positions than Judge James W. Bartlett, superior judge of Trinity county for nearly twenty years. He is an authority on mining law, having tried some of the largest and most important cases in the state. His decisions have never been reversed. The supreme court of the United States has invariably sustained his opinions. He is an able, honest and just judge. Judge Bartlett would adorn the appellate bench. We want just such men as he in the higher courts to safeguard the interests of the people and to honestly and ably interpret the law. With the type of such men as Judge Bartlett in the higher tribunals of the state the people may feel assured of honest and just decisions. Corrupt influences would have no opportunity to operate. He would respect the courts. Besides his fitness Judge Bartlett has another claim on the appointment. The northern portion of the state should be represented on the new court and as Judge Bartlett is acknowledged the ablest judge in the northern part of California his claims should, and they no doubt will be duly considered by Governor Stephens. The governor could make no appointment that would receive more approval than that of Judge Bartlett's.

GOOD WORK PERFORMED BY NEW ORGANIZATION

In the recent intensive campaign waged against the influenza epidemic in San Mateo county, the Social Service Commission of the county and the Public Health Service of the Commission played a most important and active part. The seriousness of the epidemic was first recognized by the Commission through the activities of the Public Health Service, also the imperative need of hospital care for many patients who could not be properly cared for in their homes. This need was brought to the attention of the local chapter of the Red Cross and the facilities of the Commission and the Public Health Service were placed unreservedly at its disposal. With the result that an emergency hospital was opened in Hillsborough. The chairman of the Social Service Commission, Mrs. Harry S. Dana, and the chairman of the Public Health Service, Mrs. Clarence R. Walter, offered to the local chapter of the Red Cross, the services of all their aid workers, which offer was at once accepted. Each and every member of both the Commission and the Public Health Service dropped all work in other branches of civic and social endeavor in which they were interested, and for three weeks, in co-operation with the local chapters of the Red Cross, the County Council of Defense, and the National League for Women's Service, devoted all their time and attention to combating the epidemic. They not only served as administrative officers but gave regularly each day a stated number of hours to either hospital duty, home visiting, or definite work in either the hospital kitchen or in the kitchens at the distributing centers. The county government may be justly proud of the valuable work which this, its youngest department, has rendered to the community in the past emergency and may feel confident that in all matters pertaining to the social and civic welfare of the county, the Social Service Commission and the Public Health Service will be relied upon to give efficient and effective service.

CONSTABLE JOHN H. FLYNN FILE NOTICE OF CONTEST

Constable John H. Flynn of San Mateo is preparing to file an election contest in the superior court at Redwood City and ask for an official recount of the votes cast for constable in the second township at the election November 5th. He has employed Attorney James T. O'Keefe of Redwood City to prepare the papers.

With two constables to be elected, the vote in the second township was counted by the election boards as follows:
M. F. Boland 1461
Ferguson Owen (Incumbent) 1372
John H. Flynn (Incumbent) 1369
H. C. Caldwell 666
Although Flynn can not hope to overcome the lead of Boland, he thinks that a careful count of the ballots may give him more votes than Owen, whose lead over him is only three.

APPLIES FOR LETTERS

Rose M. Gardella has applied in the superior court for letters of administration upon the estate of Frank Gardella, who died on November 7, 1918. The estate consists of personal property valued at $3,500. The only heir at law is the petitioner, Rose M. Gardella, wife of the deceased, aged 20 years, residing at Colma. W. A. Green is the attorney for petitioner.

WAR HISTORY COMMITTEE GATHERING WAR DATA

Mrs. John McGinn, chairman of the San Mateo County Woman's Committee of the National and State Defense Council, appointed the following women to make a list of the names of the men from this county who have been in the service of the government that the history of San Mateo county and its war activities, now being compiled may be full and correct account:

Mrs. Eftman, Shand and Berry for San Mateo; Mesdames Decker and Douglas for Burlingame; Mrs. W. A. Brooke for Halfmoon Bay; Mrs. Williams for Redwood City; Mrs. Clarence Walters and Miss Meta Kugeler for Menlo; Mrs. Ballinger for Colma and South San Francisco.

The co-operation of the public is asked in securing data, interesting letters and clippings that this county and its war activities may be a faithful account of the life of the people during the period of the war. Mrs. Clarence Walter, the efficient food conservation chairman for this county, rendered a report of the proposed extensive program for December providing health conditions permit. The window cards are to be abandoned and a week given over to educating the public to the need of food conservation. On Sunday go to church or to mass meeting and hear Mr. Hoover's message read. Monday see that the food program is put through the school, Tuesday have all women's clubs and organizations present food programs; Wednesday go to the library and encourage the librarian in her efforts to enlighten the reading public concerning food conservation. Thursday see that the fraternal organizations present to their members the intensive food conservation plans. Friday gather in small groups not included in the other meetings and have a speaker who has absorbed the gospel of food conservation. Saturday afternoon talk to everyone you meet about food, for every man, woman and child must participate if this nation is to make its contribution toward the preservation of civilization of Europe. Mrs. Walter closed by giving the message of Mr. Merritt, "Waste nothing. Keep on saving." After hearing the reports of Mrs. David Graham of Redwood and Mrs. Harry Dana of San Mateo relating to the work they had accomplished in connection with the influenza epidemic—both were records of untiring assistance in diet kitchens and in home relief work which was the saving means to many households and to which the women gave their knowledge and their assistants who labored with them in the night against disease—the council passed a resolution thanking Mesdames Dana, Graham and Miss Edna Truman for the service rendered in the name of humanity. Mrs. Graham is the chairman of the council for public health.

Mrs. Harry Peckham told of the good work the Woman's Army in securing the names of the sick families in San Mateo during the epidemic to assist with the work of the diet kitchen in San Mateo, and she read a letter from Mr. J. E. McCurdy thanking and praising the women for their valuable assistance in the war drives. A similar letter was read from Mr. Cray to the Burlingame women under the leadership of Mrs. Peter Decker.

Mrs. Henry Ward Brown explained that the Community Center at Menlo Park of which she is the head is awaiting official word as to the closing of the home—one of the successful institutions established for the relatives of the men at Camp Fremont, and which had so outgrown its present quarters that it was the plan to secure a larger house.

Mrs. R. Hollister was appointed as chairman of the war gardens and as Mrs. McGinn stated they would hear shortly if the peace terms meant a discontinuance of that activity. The message of Secretary of War Baker was read urging the women to continue their interest in prohibition and health safeguards until demobilization at least. Mrs. McGinn also told of the fine report her milk survey committee had rendered relative to the supply of milk the dairies of San Mateo serve the public and of the monthly testing, another safeguard to the health of the community.

Mrs. A. A. Rocher tendered her resignation as chairman of child welfare for San Mateo, and sent a communication suggesting that the members at the holiday season be remembered at the camp and as many of them are eastern men. All have faithfully performed their duties during the trying period just past, and as the army regulation forbids the association with the privates at the camp and as the officers of the hospital are mostly married men their social advantages are not as deserving as they should be and any hospitality would be welcomed by them.

A picture of the members of the council was taken by Mrs. Dorothy Crawford to be sent the state headquarters, and the meeting adjourned until December.

TOMORROW SET ASIDE AS CONSERVATION SUNDAY

Sunday, December 1st is designated by the United States Food Administration as Conservation Sunday for War Relief. Mr. Hoover's appeal to the American people will be read by the clergy in all churches throughout the United States. The appeal for food conservation is no longer addressed to the war conscience of our people. The war is over. Victory rests upon our farmers. The appeal is now addressed to the world conscience. Now that war has ceased, America must do her part to stabilize government in the stricken countries of Europe. No government can stand if the people starve. No one who has studied the marvelous work of the Food Administration will fail in loyal obedience to its expression, which we continue conservation of food and thus enable our government to carry out its promise to the sorely tried people of France and Belgium, as well as their valiant allies. Arrangements for a food conservation week following Sunday, December 1 are being made. Meetings will be held under the direction of our local Food Administrator. Don't fail to attend church Sunday, December 1st and assist the Food Administration in spreading the message of Conservation for War Relief.

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot
As Told in Breezy Style
By Our Reporters

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McEvoy were shocked the forepart of the week on receiving the sad intelligence of their son William Henry McEvoy at Montana on Monday last. He died from an attack of pneumonia brought on by influenza. Last spring the young man went to Montana to locate on a piece of government land. He secured 160 acres of land adjoining the ranch of his cousin, Parker Townsend. He was proving up on the land and improving it when death overtook him. Only two weeks ago his parents received a letter from their son in which he stated that he was enjoying the best of health and looked forward to a return to his home for a short time. The people of the young man are overcome with grief on account of the untimely death of their son whom they loved so dearly. His cousin, Parker Townsend is also suffering from influenza. He will be made to accompany the remains of his cousin home. The remains will arrive here late today or early tomorrow. The funeral will most likely take place on Monday. The deceased was born in Redwood City and was 40 years of age. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McEvoy, a professional nurse, Mrs. C. E. Maloney and Mrs. D. G. Bell, wife of Dr. Bell, of Redwood City.

The Partridge property located near Stanford Park was sold at auction by Sheriff Sheehan on the front steps of the court house at Redwood City last Tuesday to Matt I. Sullivan for $5000 he being the only bidder. The property in Visitation Valley, owned by the Partridge interests, was sold at the same time to Mr. J. A. McMahon for $10,000. The latter parcel is very valuable.

Denis Merz, the gateman, has disposed of his song "Stars and Stripes" to the American Musical company of Chicago. It was set to music by Leo Friedman, who made a hit with "Meet Me in Dreamland Sweetheart." Mr. Merz hopes to make a clean-up of $15,000 on the production. He composed it at the beginning of the war and was recited for the first time by the author at the farewell reception given by the people of Menlo Park over a year ago to the boys who were then leaving for Camp Lewis.

An automatic clock has been received by the Menlo Park fire department. It will be attached to the big siren of the department. Three blasts will be sounded at 8 o'clock in the morning, at noon and at 5 o'clock in the evening. Later a proper schedule of signals will be arranged so that the location of a fire will be known to all residents.

Michael Kogan, a former well-known resident of Menlo Park, passed away at San Jose on Monday last. The funeral took place on Wednesday from St. Joseph's church at Mayfield. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery here. The deceased was an old time resident of Mayfield where he was engaged in the plumbing business. In the heyday of the Pacific Improvement company Dorgan was the chief plumber of the concern. Under his direction the plumbing work was done on the Del Monte hotel, the Hopkins mansion here and in the city. He also supervised all the plumbing work of the Southern Pacific company. In those days Dorgan was a power. He was close to Mark Hopkins, Stanford and Huntington and knew many of the secrets of the trio. Mr. Dorgan often wanted to publish his early day relations with these great financiers and promised some startling sensations in doing so but he never found time to pen these thoughts. It is believed he had some inside knowledge which was not possessed by any other man. Dorgan was a native of Ireland, aged 66 years, but came to this country as a youth. He is survived by his wife, Catherine Dorgan. Dorgan was highly respected and was always well liked by all who knew him.

The two committees, one from Mayfield and one from Palo Alto, met on Tuesday night and discussed the question of the proposed annexation. A decision was reached and another meeting was arranged for two weeks later, after which a mass meeting will be called to allow a free expression of the feasibility of the plan. It is said that an effort will be made to include Menlo Park in the proposed annexation.

Over 2500 of the 3500 men and officers stationed at this camp took off passes to be away from camp on Thanksgiving day, according to estimates made Wednesday night by officers at camp headquarters. It is stated that the majority of these men had received invitations to dinner in private homes on the peninsula and in San Francisco.

For those men who do not wish to leave camp elaborate dinners were prepared. Following is a menu of the Motor Transport Corps, which is similar to the menus of the other organizations in camp:

Oyster soup, shrimp salad and mayonnaise dressing, olives, sweet gherkins, roast turkey and "victory dressing," baked beans and "Hoover sauce," mashed potatoes, "doubtful style," candied sweet potatoes a la chateau, sweet peas Camp Fremont style, assorted pies, cheese, cake, fruit, nuts, coffee, cigars, cigarettes and lemonade.

A fund committee for relief in Belgium has been organized, and will have a sale of various articles at the Defender's club, on December 14. The youngsters are working hard to raise a substantial sum for the benefit of Belgian children.

A telegram yesterday informed the parents of Francis Nunes of Palo Alto, that he had been killed in action in France. No further particulars were given. Nunes was a member of the 9th engineering regiment, one of two brothers in the service.

Col. Gilbert Wilkes of the 9th engineering regiment yesterday assumed temporary command of the camp during the absence of Col. C. L. Sturges, who is recovering from an official business by the war department.

Mr. and Mrs. Flood and their daughter, Miss Mary Emma Flood, returned to town Monday from Menlo Park, where they had been passing the summer.

After a week's brave struggle for life the Rev. Luke Parker, assistant pastor of St. Mary's church, Stockton died of pneumonia following influenza on Saturday, November 16 at St. Joseph's hospital in that city. Father Parker heroically ministered to the afflicted members of his parish in Stockton where the epidemic was especially severe, until he himself was stricken with the influenza and was obliged to go to the hospital. Like the good shepherd, he gave his life for his flock.

The Rev. Luke Parker was born in Oakland twenty-eight years ago in 1890. He was a bright student at St. Elizabeth's school in San Francisco, and after his graduation studied at Sacred Heart college. He entered St. Patrick's seminary in 1908 where he pursued a brilliant career as a student, and was a member of the last ordination class. He was appointed last June as assistant to Father McGough at St. Mary's, Stockton, where he was universally beloved. Father Parker was well-known in Menlo Park.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Duff on Tuesday evening received a cablegram from their son, Lieutenant James Leo Duff who is in the artillery corps of the Sixth division, saying that he was enjoying good health and well. His division has borne the brunt of battle at the front during the last two months of the war. Lieutenant Duff has been in action for that length of time taking part in many of the heroic engagements on the Marne and Meuse rivers.

Mortimer Sullivan passed away at the home of J. J. Murray in Stanford Park last Sunday evening. The deceased was a native of Ireland, aged 82 years. He had been a resident of the county for nearly fifty years and for the past forty years had lived in Menlo Park. His wife died a little over a month ago. Mr. Sullivan had been an invalid for a number of years. After his wife's death Mr. Sullivan went to reside with his old friend J. J. Murray. The funeral took place on Tuesday and the interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park.

Sergeant C. J. Thomas writes of the east thanking the Red Cross of Camp Fremont on behalf of the officers and men of the Eighth division for their kindness to them. The sergeant says that on his way to the front he never forgot this kindness. The Eighth division were only three days out at sea when they were recalled. The war came to a close a few days after and the soldiers were sorely disappointed in not reaching the front.

Mrs. John MacBain, head of the recent war work drive, reports that the amount raised in Menlo Park was $3,300. The sum of $2800 was raised at Alhambra. Mrs. MacBain had a number of good collectors to whom much of the credit is due for the success of the drive. Menlo Park went considerably over the top.

The estate consists of cash amounting to $1313.45 and other personal property valued at $78. The deceased left a will dated November 5, 1918. The entire estate is bequeathed to the wife and three children of the deceased. Petitioner is named as sole executor to serve without bonds.

HALFMOON BAY BREEZES

Miss Helen Gilcrest left Sunday on account of the opening of her school in Colma on Monday.

Mrs. W. A. Brooke of Halfmoon Bay, sub-chairman of the Defense Council, states that due to health conditions they will not hold any meeting this month.

Mrs. George Debenedetti of Halfmoon Bay was in San Francisco the fore part of the week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cuneo. Miss Pauline Gilcrest returned to San Jose Sunday to resume her studies at the San Jose Normal on the following Monday.

Mrs. Fred A. Simmons and charming daughter, Miss Pauline Simmons, visited San Francisco yesterday on a Christmas shopping tour.

The rainfall that has come to the coastside the past week is doing worlds of good. The stockmen are happy because it guarantees plenty of pasture, and the farmers are happy because it guarantees a big crop for next season.

Mrs. Antonio George returned to her home one day this week after taking care of her daughter, Mrs. Toney Furtado, in Oakland, who has been the sick list.

Mr. Robbins of Suisun, one of the principal owners in the Ocean Shore railroad, is reported to be the second highest individual income tax payer in the State of California.

Mrs. Karl Bareis was taken to a hospital in San Francisco Wednesday where an operation was performed. Mrs. Bareis is doing nicely at this writing.

Owing to the non-arrival of the necessary material the government work being done on the Montara lighthouse has temporarily been discontinued. It is understood that work will be resumed shortly.

There is more inquiry than usual for information about land and houses along the coastside. It is hoped that the interest will make people more enthusiastic about their holdings, and now that the war is over, will build on their lots, clean up their streets and "shut up" on the "depression stuff."

Father Gleason of San Jose held services at the Catholic church Sunday on account of the illness of Rev. Father Sosio, who is doing nicely at this writing.

Representatives of the Ocean Shore railroad appeared before the supervisors' Public Utilities Committee of San Francisco Wednesday in an effort to secure permission to use a gasoline driven car in the place of the heavy locomotives that are now in use. It was represented that the lighter gasoline car will not make the vibration and is cleaner and more economical. No action was taken.

LOUIS C. BETZOLD WRITES FROM FAR AWAY FRANCE

Somewhere in France, September 17, 1918.—Dear friend Nelson and Mrs. Paddock: It has been quite a while since I have had a chance to write. I didn't stay in Camp Kearney long, consequently only received one paper, thanks very much. Have had about five changes since I have been in the army. Am in the field artillery now, I like it fine. We left Camp Kearney for New York by way of Tucson, Arizona, Fort Worth, Arizona, Little Rock, Arizona, St. Louis, Mo., Indianapolis, Cleveland, Ohio, Buffalo, N. Y., and then down the Hudson river for New York City. Our camp there was on Long Island, Camp Mills, stayed there a few days meanwhile resting, cleaning and drawing equipment and woolen clothing. There was nothing exciting about the trip across the pond, in fact, I was no more afraid of being sunk than as if we were on a San Francisco ferry boat, the fleet is so well armed and such a good convoy that a U-boat couldn't launch a torpedo without being sunk them.

Mr. Robbins of Suisun, one of the principal owners in the Ocean Shore railroad, is reported to be the second highest individual income tax payer in the State of California.

Mrs. Karl Bareis was taken to a hospital in San Francisco Wednesday where an operation was performed. Mrs. Bareis is doing nicely at this writing.

Owing to the non-arrival of the necessary material the government work being done on the Montara lighthouse has temporarily been discontinued. It is understood that work will be resumed shortly.

There is more inquiry than usual for information about land and houses along the coastside. It is hoped that the interest will make people more enthusiastic about their holdings, and now that the war is over, will build on their lots, clean up their streets and "shut up" on the "depression stuff."

Father Gleason of San Jose held services at the Catholic church Sunday on account of the illness of Rev. Father Sosio, who is doing nicely at this writing.

Representatives of the Ocean Shore railroad appeared before the supervisors' Public Utilities Committee of San Francisco Wednesday in an effort to secure permission to use a gasoline driven car in the place of the heavy locomotives that are now in use. It was represented that the lighter gasoline car will not make the vibration and is cleaner and more economical. No action was taken.

Keep Your Ford Car Running

The country around here is very pretty, is about the same as the lower foot-hill country below Woodside and Portola in springtime. It is green here now, it has been raining nearly all the time we have been here also a good deal of lightning. Starting early in the morning, our training camps, we expect to put in six weeks intensive training and then we go to the front. We see soldiers of all countries around here off duty. I leave, most of them are of the opinion that the war will be over in a few months, the allies are making such great headway, taking so many prisoners and we surely have them on the go now.

The French people are very obliging, and certainly making soldiering a lot more interesting for us. At the last town we were in I met a family who would fill me up with the best of grub, always want one to eat and you couldn't offer any objections, they wouldn't let to it. I can talk a little French now, it is a hard language to learn, grammar is all backwards to one and they do all their sounding in nose and throat. Well so long, I can't think of anything else to write about now so will close for now.

With love and regards to all, I am,
LOUIS BETZOLD.
